848 married, "child would then have a stepfather, who would treat him as his own child" (SM).

551 553 Names, nicknames.- Name given child week after birth, usually by child's maternal grandmother, but also by paternal grandfather or father; either man, woman named boys and girls. Little formality attached to name giving; person "just told the parents the child's name." Children named for ancestors who had to have been dead at least 2, 3 yrs.; now sometimes named also for living relatives (SM). FP thought people "didn't care whether children were named for relatives or not." Names for males, females not used interchangeably; names not kept secret, often used in direct address; no taboo against pronouncing name of dead. Most names meaningless. Some examples of names follow; Gifford also gives several (Gifford, 1917, 227):

● 855 Childhood.- Young children seldom whipped, but frequently scolded; LT threatened to whip 4-yr.-old daughter with nettles once in my hearing, but was on whole indulgent to child, feeding her whenever she whined for food, holding her on lap frequently, always taking child with her on short trips, etc. MM so markedly indulgent with his adopted son, 8 yrs. old, that SM, MM's father, criticized him for always buying boy [857] candy, giving him what he asked for. Older children of 12-15, both boys and girls, took protective interest in younger siblings, but were seldom left to take care of them for any length

855 of time, child up to age 7-8 yrs. generally ac-
[857] companying mother wherever she went.

Child of 7, 8 shown navel cord by mother; no
852 reason ascertainable; mother then buried cord outside house (SM) or kept it (FP); LT had lost cord belonging to her eldest son, but no misfortune attributed to this fact.

572 Two unrelated boys or 2 unrelated girls, when
857 about 8 yrs. old, often assumed chum relationship (na·mum); boys exchanged bows, arrows; girls, bracelets; this relationship lasted into adult life. Chums used each other's belongings freely, lived at each other's homes "as much as they wanted to," went out hunting and to get wood together; in later life would never assume face-washing relationship (p. 68) toward each other;
[582] man might marry his chum's sister, but this not obligatory.

852 Children approaching puberty frequently lectured by old man, woman relative at sundown, outside house; no sand paintings drawn. Speech to boys taken in text (Voegelin, 1935 b, 219); FP gave following speech for girls:

539 "Listen to me! I am an old woman and know what to do. Treat the people kindly. Don't be stingy; give visitors food; when they go home they will say good things about you. Don't talk about others (gossip maliciously). Don't stare at a person when you see him coming; you will
[888] see him when he arrives. Treat the old people
[841] well; do not dislike them; the old men too. Don't eat meat or grease when you have your menses; drink only warm water then. Use a stick to scratch your head at this time; if you don't, your hair
[886] will fall out. Don't be angry all the time; if you are, you will get old quickly."

881 Adolescence.- Boys' adolescence ceremony lack-
276 ing; both boys, girls after puberty enjoined to
776 take jimsonweed by old people, to obtain "life"; many did, but this not obligatory. SM said boys took ants, tobacco for same purpose, but that [757] these were "too strong" for girls; FP had, however, taken all 3 for specific ailments and in hopes of obtaining "life" (see Autobiography of FP).

[262] At first menses girl ate no meat, grease, or salt for one month; drank only warm water for 6 days; during subsequent periods observed these taboos for length of period only. If menstruating woman ate meat, her husband would not see game (SM); violation of food taboos gave woman cough
[413] she would "never get over" (MM). Scratching stick used. No isolation of girl in separate hut; informants disagreed whether pit used; SM in 1931 said girl at first menstruation stayed in house, being put over little hole which had hot rocks underneath "like the hole a woman used when she had a baby," but that girl was not covered with anything; mother or old woman took care of girl. In 1932 SM denied pit was ever used, except at childbirth. FP said girl went about her ordinary occupations during first period; no pit used.

159 My husband used to haul water and wood for me;
● 855 he was a good man when he wasn't drunk. My chil-
432 dren were good, too; I never whipped them. Legora learned to make baskets; she made a pretty one. My husband took it to a lady at Weldon; she paid him $5 for it.

159 One time an old woman from omomĭp was visiting
781 my grandmother at yĭtiyamup. They went out to get ku·l seeds this side (E) of the Goat ranch (no. 12, fig. 11) on the flats there. They were carrying their baskets on their backs; they had little blankets with them. When it got late they slept down by the river, under some willows. And they heard something flying above the tops of the willows, going "wo, wowo, wo, wo" all night; first the noise would seem to be above their heads, then it would grow fainter, then louder again. They left that place; they took their blankets and they went over toward the flat. They slept on the flat; it was dark. Anangayat came out of his cave up there on the Goat ranch; they heard him say, "Aha, aha, ha, ha!" so grandmother's friend said, "You better get up; hurry up!" They were frightened. They left that place and they went up the valley to omomĭp, where grandmother's friend lived.

159 When Legora was little, one time my nose
756 started bleeding, one day in summer. It wouldn't stop. My father took me over to Paiute Ramon (Kawaiisu shaman) in a little buggy; I left Legora home with my sister-in-law. We traveled all night; my nose bled all the time, unceasingly. The blood filled a big bucket we carried along in the buggy. We got to Ramon's place about 3 o'clock the next afternoon. That doctor was standing on the other side of a little hill watching us; he knew we were coming. Doctors know lots. When we got to the house we heard somebody crying, making a noise, behind us. The witch (a Tübatulabal woman) who had made me sick was doing that crying. That doctor knew all that; he said she had followed me there. And he worked over me all night; we paid him $20. The next day my nosebleed stopped. Then the next day we returned home; the doctor said that witch, mapali·p, had put a cat inside my nose and that it was scratching all the time inside there; that's what made my nose bleed like that.

159 I was well for one year after that. Then a
821 big whirlwind came, oh!, a big one, carrying 754 sticks and straw in it; it came close to me; it touched me. Then right away my knee swelled up; I could hardly sleep at night. My knee looked as though it were going to burst. I dreamt bad dreams, about that woman, mapali·p (a witch). I told my husband about my dream. He got mad and 159 went over to Kernville where mapali·p was staying.
754 He said to her,
626 "I know you're witching my wife; that doctor over at Paiute told me. I want you to cure her."

Mapali·p didn't say anything for a long time. Then she said, "Well, what's the matter with her?"

"She's sick all the time. You made her nose bleed, her knee swell up; she's pretty sick.
